Person of the Month

On Monday we will recognize as a national holiday, Memorial Day, which will be a day of ceremonies, speeches, family gatherings and, for some, private visits to cemeteries. Throughout the United States, Americans will honor those who perished advancing our banner in conflict. We will recall their valor and their sacrifices and remember they gave their lives so that this great experiment of ours could persist.

In his address at Gettysburg in 1863, the first Republican president, Abraham Lincoln, reminded us that, through their deeds, the dead had spoken more eloquently for themselves than any of the living ever could and that we, the living, could only honor them by rededicating ourselves to the cause for which they so willingly gave a last full measure of devotion. Vivid in our minds and hearts is the memory of Vietnam, the Iraq wars and Afghanistan and what those conflicts meant to those who sacrificed on the field of battle and for their loved ones who suffered here at home. The American system can only endure and prosper with the sacrifices of so many brave men and women, the vast majority of whom will never be known to the public.

The events surrounding Memorial Day should be a stirring reminder of America’s resilience and the perseverance of its people. The pandemic, the trying election of 2020, the war in Ukraine, supply chain crises, inflation, market uncertainties and other pressures have inflicted stress upon us all in recent times, but we must remember this nation and its people have endured such circumstances again and again and ultimately come out on top. This Memorial Day, honor those who gave the ultimate sacrifice by dedicating yourself to work for the change this nation so desperately needs in November the free and prosperous America our heroes died for stands tall once again.

Chairman, Pinellas Republican Party

VICE CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE

The Free State of Florida

This is the year we Republicans take back the Pinellas County Commission. In case you did not hear already, a Leon County judge dismissed the Pinellas County election bill lawsuit. This means all single-member districts will be on the ballot. It is hard to believe our Pinellas County Commission sued the best governor in the Union, Ron DeSantis. We won when they lost.

Thus, it is go for launch for Republicans to take back the Pinellas County Commission. During 2020 and 2021, the Commission imposed unnecessary restrictions on us all. It was politics at its worst.

The best thing we can do now is get to know the Republican candidates in each race, and, whoever wins in each race's primary, to then support the Republican candidate in the General Election. Republicans will have a 4-3 majority if we win in the District 2 race. This is the best way to guarantee our county remains free and the Constitution wins when it comes to the actions of the Commission.

By supporting the Republican candidates in the General Election, we will be unified in our effort to save our county. Thank you all for your continued support of the Pinellas GOP and conservative, Republican candidates.

Grassroots are essential to Republican campaign efforts, and it cannot be done without men and woman like you.

MORGAN FORSTER:

RPOF Pinellas County
Field Director

Morgan Forster grew up in Pinellas County. She was an early college student at St. Petersburg College, where her focus was on Psychology. Along with her education and part time job, she competed in shotgun shooting. After she lost her job and college scholarship due to refusing the COVID vaccine, her interest in politics grew stronger. Her shotgun coach offered her a job to be an intern for the Marco Rubio campaign. After several months of working on the campaign, her coach gave her resume off to the Republican Party of Florida, and she was hired to be Regional Field Director in Pinellas. Her role includes training volunteers and deploying them on behalf of all Republican General Election candidates up and down the ballot. Also, she works with and provides the RNC data for those candidates to maximize their voter targeting most effectively, all while ensuring a strong grass roots organizational structure to establish a dominant Get-Out-The-Vote effort. In January, Morgan plans to attend Jacksonville University, where she will finish her degree in Political Psychology and compete in its D1 Completive Shotgun Shooting Team. Morgen is looking forward to work with the REC and the various Republican candidates to beat the Democrats.
