

HOW TO BECOME A MEMBER

Thank you for your interest in becoming active in the Pinellas County Republican Party! By joining the Pinellas County Republican Executive Committee (PCREC), you become a part of our vast network of dedicated Republicans. The PCREC is the local level of the Republican Party of Florida (RPOF), which is the state level of the Republican National Committee (RNC).

It is an excellent opportunity to meet elected officials & candidates, to work together to win elections, to shape the direction of the Republican Party, and to make new networking contacts. This is accomplished by becoming a Precinct Committeeman / Committeewoman, or if these positions are already filled, an Alternate Precinct Committeeman / Committeewoman. You can do this by completing the following:

- This includes the Republican Party Loyalty Oath (page 2), per the Republican Party of Florida Party Rules of Procedure, Republican State Executive Committee, Rule 9 A.
- Note that the Oath of Candidate for Precinct Committeemen and Committeewomen (page 4) requires that the signature be notarized.
- Your local bank will usually provide a notary for free.

You may submit your completed application either by mail to the address below or during a PCREC meeting. Please REMEMBER TO SIGN IN at the Applicant's table, so your attendance may be noted. Requirements for membership are:

- You must be a registered Republican for a minimum of 12 months
- Submit the completed application
- Once your application has been received you must attend three PCREC meetings and sign in as an Applicant.
- Attend the New Member Orientation Class to learn more about the PCREC, your duties as a member, the resources available to you as a member, and to answer any additional questions you may have.
- Once your application has been processed and approved for membership, you will be notified of the date to be sworn in.
- After the swear-in date is confirmed, the Applicant will be sworn in as a Precinct Committeeman/woman or Alternate Precinct Committeeman /woman and voted upon by the full PCREC membership.

PRECINCT COMMITTEEMAN / COMMITTEEWOMAN

Being a Precinct Committeeman or Precinct Committeewoman is an important role. By choosing to become active in the PCREC, you represent the Republican Party in your voting precinct. You can be instrumental in electing Republican officials by promoting the Republican Party and getting Republicans to vote in your community.

Some suggested activities are, but not limited to

- Get to know the members of your community
- Help identify unregistered conservatives and get them registered as voters.
- Help direct Independents and Democrats who would like to change their party affiliation to Republican.
- Counsel your precinct on elections; distribute literature and information on Republican candidates, amendments, and election law.
- Help organize meetings and events; invite Republican candidates for meet and greets at churches, civic groups and clubs.
- Walk door to door and leave a card or message, if possible.
- Help organize a team who will get voters to the polls get them out to vote
- Be a poll watcher on Election Day, to observe that the process is fair.
- Help keep voters informed – if you cannot answer a question, please contact the PCREC Office and then get back to the voter with an answer as soon as possible.

PLEASE KEEP THIS FOR YOUR RECORDS.
